FIFTEEN CENTS

Primary Election Next Tuesday

SOME SEQUOIT TERRACE residents had their own private lake, right in their backyards, after last week's heavy rainfall. This picture was taken behind the homes on First St. and Phillips

Circle, just east of Hillside. The scene was typical of many places in the area where the vast amount of water simply had no other place to go ... but in your basement or your backyard.

CB Radios Stolen, 3 Youths Arrested

Antioch police last week solved a rash of thefts of citizens band radios. Three juveniles were charged with stealing a total of six radios from five vehicles. They will appear soon in juvenile court in Waukegan. Two are 16 years old and one is 15.

Police Chief John Wells said one of the youths was caught in the act by officers Harold Mason and Stan Revell.

Sgt. Chuck Miller, the village's juvenile officer, questioned the youth, learned of the involvement of the other two, and recovered all six of the radios. They are valued from $125 to $300 each.

Most of the radios were stolen between 8 and 11 p.m. last Thursday night.

Howlett In Antioch Thursday

Illinois' secretary of state, Michael J. Howlett, a candidate for the Democratic nomination for governor, will be in Antioch Thursday.

A reception in Howlett's honor will be held at Lorenz's Smart Country House from 4:30 to 6:30 p.m.

Frank ReCupido, a member of the local Democratic organization, said he is hoping that Howlett's "Lake County friends will turn out to meet him."

Precinct Races Stir Interest

Next Tuesday is "primary election day" for Illinois voters. In Antioch's six precincts, the polls will be open from 6 a.m. until 6 p.m. Results of the voting are not expected out of Waukegan until late that night.

Two races have become "the talk of the town" in Antioch. Both are for Republican precinct committeeman.

In precinct 1, the competition is between Michael J. Haley and Hugo Holbek.

Haley, a village trustee, was appointed to the post when Bernard Osmond resigned recently after serving for more than 25 years. Precinct 1 includes most of the village west of Main St. and the voting place is the village hall. There are about 1,300 registered voters in the area and both Haley and Holbek have been conducting door-to-door campaigns.

The job of precinct committeeman can be an important office. He is the liaison man between the citizens and the public officials.

Haley, 33, is a lifelong resident of Antioch and the owner of Haley Bros. Cleaners. He and his wife Susan have two daughters, Jennifer 4 and Megann, 5 months.

Haley has been a member of the Antioch Rescue Squad for 12 years and a member of the Lions Club, also for 12 years.

He is a past member of the Lake-McHenry County law enforcement commission.

Olson has been a Republican precinct committeeman for 10 years. He is a partner in the Stewart Olson Implement Co. and a past president of the Lions Club and the Antioch Aqua Center.

HOLBEK, 28, lives at 858 Hillandale with his wife, Patricia, and two children: Mark 10 and Dave 2.

He is the store manager at Mike Sexton's Antioch Auto Parts.

The last two years, Holbek has served as an assistant manager for the minor league Giants in the Antioch Little League baseball program.

He has been a member of the Antioch fire department for almost six years.

Holbek said he is running for the office because he feels he can "help support the Republican party. My dad, Herman, was involved in politics all his life and I feel I can serve as a good committeeman for the party."

This is Holbek's first try for public office.

"There's no glory to the job," he said. "It's just like being a volunteer fireman. There's no pay involved, but it's interesting to know that you can help serve the people and be a representative for your party's candidates."

IN PRECINCT 2, which has 1,500 registered voters east of Main St., incumbent James A. Olson is being opposed by Norma Garvin Lowe.

The area is large, bordered on the north by the state line, on the east by highway 45 and on the south by the Loon Lake area.

Olson has been a Republican precinct committeeman for 10 years. He is a partner in the Stewart Olson Implement Co. and a past president of the Lions Club and the Antioch Aqua Center.

He and his wife, Lillian, have four daughters: Pam 23, Gail 20, Linda 14 and Sandy 13.

The precinct committeeman jobs are two-year offices.

NORMA GARVIN LOWE is the wife of "Scotty" Lowe, a well-known village employee.

They live at 255 Oakwood Dr. and have two children, Kim 8 and Scott 7.

Mrs. Lowe works part-time at Oakland School. She also is a member of the Women of the Moose and has been a worker for the Antioch Township Republican Club.

"Even though it's not considered a full-time job, if elected committeewoman I feel I have the time to do it full-time," Mrs. Lowe said. "I can get out and meet the people and help them with any problems they might have."

The voting place in Precinct 2 is the Scouthouse on Main St.

Evaluators Praise Antioch High School

An evaluation has been received by Antioch Community High School from the Illinois Office of Education, concerning the visitation to the high school in December. The state's summary report said:

"Mr. Warren Polley, the superintendent, and his staff appear to be dedicated professionals who administer a good district. Mr. Polley was most cooperative and kind during the time we spent with him."

"All documents were read, investigated and evaluated. These documents (philosophy, policy manual, school board minutes, financial reports, tax levy, budget, and audit were all in excellent order, well structured and well organized."

"The educational climate, atmosphere and environment for learning is warm and pleasant. The rapport between staff members and students appeared to be excellent."

"Board minutes indicated good rapport between the board of education and the superintendent."

"We commend highly the office support for their efficiency, cooperation, and charm."

"Maintenance and custodial services were found to be excellent."

"The planning and actual preparation for the evaluation was excellent."

"The curriculum program as a whole is an extensive program which provides the opportunities for all students, and we would like to commend the administration for providing excellent leadership."

"We commend the district for employing strong non-certificated personnel and the outstanding job that the hall supervisory people are doing."

The evaluation team that studied Antioch High School recommended that the North Central Association give the school "full recognition."

Successful Show At St. Peter's

St. Peter's school children presented their second annual Variety Show last Thursday.

The dress rehearsal was presented to the student body in the afternoon, and the evening performance was for their parents and the public. Thirty-one acts were given by the students from first through eighth grade.

The show opened with introductions by Masters of Ceremonies Don Purfeerst and Peter Apostol. The lads are in the 7th grade and can really "ham it up."

The first act was performed by Jody and Joan Bellucci, and Debbie Clark, doing a cute and well executed tap dance.

Staying with a Bicentennial theme, Mary Schwenn and Brian Pankauskas came out dressed in red, white and blue with "Uncle Sam" hats singing, "Yankee Doodle." Mary and Brian weren't a bit shy, and really belted out their song.

Many of the acts were thought up and written by the students themselves. A new twist of "The Three Little Pigs" story was a playlet given by fourth and fifth graders. The wolf ends up as the "good guy."

The audience was even treated by a surprise visit from "Howard Cosell," alias Scott Budnik who commentated a fight with Muhammad Ali (played by Tom Merkiel) and Ed Stanek (as Joe Frazier). The fight turned out with "Ali" punching the referee, Joe Gurtowski, who stayed down till the count of 10.

Tony Grigoris, the "Glen Campbell of Antioch," sang and played the guitar to "This Land Is Your Land."

Other acts were piano solos, a comedy magic act by Steve Ksioszk, a couple song and dance numbers, a tumbling act, and a good old fashioned square dance number. It was all put together with the help of Tom Sitler, Laura Young and directed by Mrs. Dorothy Purfeerst and Pat Center.

The mothers, with help from the eighth grade boys, who handled the props, put together a very entertaining 1½ hours. The program was video-taped in the afternoon, to be played back for Sister Marjorie when she returns from a short stay in the hospital.

Hawaiians Hope For Heat Source

Hawaiians think they may soon have a partial solution to the energy crisis, but it won't do the rest of us much good.

The Federal Energy Administration reports that scientists in Hawaii are trying to harness the heat of volcanoes to generate electric power.

They have not yet been successful, but a research team is about to drill 6,000 feet into the side of Kilauea, the world's most active volcano. If they can find a steady supply of steam or hot water, a generating plant could be operating on the site by 1979.

Freedom is what one claims for himself without always being willing to grant it to others.

BARRY GOLDWATER

Liberals Coddle Cuba

By SEN. BARRY GOLDWATER

Strangely enough, there are still liberals running around who want the United States to get a lot cozier with Communist Cuba.

I don't know why anyone should expect the liberals to change their spots merely because Fidel Castro hates the United States and provides the fountainhead for exporting Communist mercenaries through the world. But it seems nothing will change their minds.

But the American people are entitled to know far more than the liberals are willing to tell them. Of course, events in Angola showed that the Cubans had backed the Soviet-supported faction in that country to the extent of 5,000 troops.

NOW COMES a report from the Washington Star's expert on Latin America, Jeremiah O'Leary, that Cuban forces are now deployed in seven other African countries.

O'Leary reports that a breakdown of the Cuban military now believed in Africa indicates the largest number, perhaps up to a thousand, is in the People's Republic of Congo (Brazzaville), the major staging area for Cubans fighting in Angola. The rest of the Cubans have been located as follows:

Tanzania - 500 Cubans, all but 15 of whom are uniformed regulars or technicians.

Equatorial Guinea - 500 Cubans assigned to training missions, internal security units and the presidential guard.

Republic of Guinea - 300 Cubans of whom at least 60 have been identified positively as military.

Somalia - 50 Cuban troops.

O'LEARY POINTS out that the deployment of Cubans in eight African nations is by far the largest foreign military presence on the African continent. There can be no doubt that Cuban mercenaries are now being used by the Soviet Union to carry out its imperialist goals in the African continent.

This is an old Soviet technique. They supply the advisers, technicians and commissars while drawing their actual fighting forces from countries like Cuba. And so long as Cuba lends itself to this active support of interests contrary to those of the United States, we should certainly do nothing to assist her economically, culturally or any of the other ways proposed by some of our radical liberals.

Bloomington Paper Sums Up the Race

Michael J. Howlett, secretary of state, was endorsed for governor in the Mar. 16 Democratic primary election by the Daily Pantagraph of Bloomington.

"In Michael Howlett we have a solid political practitioner," said the Pantagraph.

"Howlett is strong on organization," the Pantagraph continued, "and will deal with the General Assembly in a far more skilled and cooperative way than Walker."

"He is not disliked by Republicans ... He is strong on conciliation. Illinois needs that."

In the Republican primary, the Pantagraph endorsed James Thompson for the office.

"One thing an alarm clock never rouses is our better nature."

Letter

Against 'Home Rule'

Tuesday, Mar. 16, is primary election day ... an election day when a very small percentage of voters take the time to declare themselves and vote.

What a perfect time to have the "home rule" question on the ballot.

How many people realize that "home rule" gives the county board and its "county executive" the "general powers to regulate for the protection of public health, safety, morals and welfare; to license for regulatory purposes; to tax and to incur debt?"

We must have a great deal of

4 Qualified Candidates

In an era when American voters have often felt they didn't have much of a choice ... that they were choosing between the lesser of two evils ... it is particularly refreshing in Antioch that there are four qualified candidates for the posts of Republican committeeman in precincts 1 and 2.

In precinct 1, they are Michael J. Haley and Hugo Holbek.

Either would do an excellent job.

Haley has been a dedicated village trustee for the last three years, an extremely hard and intelligent worker for the community of Antioch. As a member of Mayor Robert C. Wilton's team, Mike Haley has contributed to many of the improvements that have been made here in the last three years. He is a good politician and we feel sure he will continue to make outstanding contributions as a civic leader.

Hugo Holbek has many of the same qualities. He is thoroughly liked and respected by the people he works with in his job, as store manager of Antioch Auto Parts, and by his fellow volunteer firemen in the village of Antioch.

Hugo, we feel, will do a good job in any capacity that he takes on.

Both are outstanding young men and we find it impossible to endorse one over the other. We give them both our total endorsement and must leave it up to the voters to decide which will be their Republican precinct committeeman in what promises to be a very close and interesting race on Tuesday, Mar. 16.

THE SAME SITUATION exists in precinct 2, where the candidates are incumbent James A. Olson and Norma Garvin Lowe.

Both are honest, hard workers for the Republican party. We don't know of a single person who dislikes either of these two excellent candidates. They both deserve our complete endorsement.

Other communities should have it so good.

huge Washington bureaucracy instead of just leaving it alone.

We suspect Reagan can do it, because he's already done it.

As governor of California, he held down the cost and growth of government with a firm hand. He stood toe-to-toe with a big-spending legislature and won his cause instead of compromising it.

By being elected governor of California, Reagan indicated he can win and win big against a huge Democratic majority.

If Reagan can't win the nomination, President Gerald Ford is by far preferable to any of the Democratic candidates.

The worst thing you can say about Ford is that he was selected by President Nixon. In 1972 Republicans hoped that Nixon would prove to be one of our great Presidents, and for a while it looked as if he might be. But he made tragic mistakes.

We know one thing about Ford. He is honest. By coincidence, Jack Casserly, one of our closest friends, was selected by Ford to come to the White House and be the President's senior speech writer.

Casserly is a man of such honesty and integrity that he wouldn't work for anyone who wasn't of the same caliber.

Wilton and Lumber Deserve Our Votes

Antioch's mayor, Robert C. Wilton, and Attorney F. James Lumber deserve the support of local voters in next Tuesday's primary election.

Wilton has done an outstanding job as the mayor of Antioch. Those voting in the Republican primary will find his name listed as a candidate for alternate delegate to the national nominating convention. He is a member of President Gerald Ford's team and we urge you to vote for that team.

Mayor Wilton has been an outstanding leader for the village of Antioch in the last three years. His record is one of accomplishment. The cooperative spirit at Monday night village meetings, and the way Wilton's team is working for the good of Antioch, is a pleasure to observe after seeing the friction and mismanagement that exists in other communities.

THOSE VOTING in the Democratic primary will find that F. James Lumber is opposed by James J. Cummings for the Democratic nomination for Congressman from the 13th District.

Lumber is by far the superior candidate. He is well-known in Antioch as an attorney and as the recent president of the local Chamber of Commerce & Industry.

Jim Lumber is an honest, intelligent gentleman who would be an outstanding new addition to the House of Representatives if voters from this district choose to send him to Washington, D.C.

After defeating Cummings, of course, Lumber will have to beat the incumbent Republican, Robert McClory, in the November election.

Thompson for Governor

The Chicago Tribune has endorsed Michael Howlett for governor in the Mar. 16 Democratic primary.

"He is an administrator of proved skill, adept at dealing with the legislature on terms of cooperation and fellowship rather than confrontation," said the Tribune.

"We see him as the better of the two choices."

WE AGREE THAT Howlett would make a better Democratic governor than Dan Walker.

We feel Walker is honest but has shown that he can't lead the state of Illinois successfully.

Howlett is a popular politician and is Mayor Daley's choice for governor. He probably will win.

But we would prefer an honest Republican faith in our county board to entrust them with these "general powers." Do you have such faith?

In the Jan. 31 edition of the News-Sun it was stated that a set of petitions were being circulated in the county to "Slash the number of county board members from 25 to five."

Give five people all the "general powers of home rule?" I for one, hope not.

Let's not have voter apathy. Get out and vote against home rule. Take the time to remind a friend to vote. Let them know they need to declare themselves to vote on the home rule issue. It will only take five minutes, but could save much in tax dollars.

Meat Consumption Down Last Year

Consumers ate less red meat last year, despite record high beef and the highest veal consumption in a decade.

The U.S. Department of Agriculture reports that per capita beef consumption in 1975 reached 120.1 pounds, topping the previous high of 116.8 pounds per consumer in 1974. Consumption of veal averaged 4.1 pounds, which is up from 2.3 pounds in 1974.

But pork consumption last year dropped to 54.4 pounds, down 20 per cent from a year earlier. That is the lowest total since 1935. In addition, there was continued lower consumption of lamb and mutton.

As a result, overall consumption of red meat averaged only 180.7 pounds, the lowest since 1967.

governor. Jim Thompson is our only hope in that category.

He might prove as ineffective as Walker when it comes to wheeling and dealing in state government. When he spoke in Antioch last week, regardless of his tight schedule, he should have spent another 15 minutes or more meeting the people who gave up their important time to meet him. Howlett would have done that. He's a politician.

BUT THOMPSON DID some fine work as a United States attorney for the northern district of Illinois. Consider the Lake County sheriff's department mess, which he helped clean up.

Thompson is clean, honest and we believe in his integrity.

The recent "conflict of interest" questions cast upon Howlett's integrity won't permit us to endorse that otherwise excellent politician and "nice guy."

Moran for Supreme Court

The results of the Judicial Advisory Poll for the Second Judicial District indicate that Appellate Court Justice Thomas J. Moran of Waukegan, candidate for the Illinois Supreme Court, is the lone Republican recommended for that position by both Republican and Democratic lawyers in the District.

The poll, taken under the auspices of the Illinois State Bar Association, is directed to more than 2,400 attorneys practicing in the 13 northern counties of Illinois.

Justice Moran is opposed in the Mar. 16 Republican primary by State Sen. Harris W. Fawell, R-Naperville, who was recommended by Republican attorneys, but not by Democratic attorneys. Overall, including the votes of those lawyers who indicated that they were politically "unaffiliated," both Moran and Fawell were given a recommendation.

Moran has done a good job in appellate court and deserves our endorsement. Fawell, on his record as a state senator, also would be a good choice.

We Also Endorse ...

For those who haven't had time to study the records of some of the candidates in next Tuesday's primary election, we would like to suggest that they support:

- Clyde Wm. Barnes Jr. for Lake County Auditor.
- Either Robert H. (Mickey) Babcox or William A. Kennedy, two qualified candidates for Lake County Coroner.
- Herbert (Kelly) Horton Sr. of Antioch also is in the Republican primary and will receive many votes from his many Antioch friends; but we do not believe that Mr. Horton is as well-known throughout the county as Babcox and Kennedy.

- William E. Brook for member of the Regional Board of School Trustees.

- Harry G. Robin for County Board Member from District 4. As a second choice, we endorse Norman C. Geary over Wilson Brad Muse.

- While we strongly feel that voters should say "no" to the

Our Endorsements

We believe it can be helpful to readers if newspapers endorse candidates.

Next Tuesday, hopefully, there will be a big turnout of voters for the primary elections in Antioch Township's six precincts. The polls will be open from 6 a.m. until 6 p.m.

In a suburban community such as Antioch, most voters are well informed and don't need a newspaper to give them last-minute recommendations.

Yet, we in the newspaper business deal with or hear from - every day - the men who are running for office.

Voters often make terrible mistakes. Some, uninformed, enter the polls and make selections as if they are flipping coins. Others, including members of labor unions, just walk in and vote the straight Democratic party ticket.

Remember 1964, when Lyndon Johnson defeated Barry Goldwater in a landslide? The American voters made a mistake; they selected a wheeler-dealer Democratic politician over a Republican who had some idea about what this country needed. Goldwater was laughed at then, but 12 years later he is recognized as one of the country's most respected thinkers.

Hopefully, if we all study the candidates intelligently, we can avoid tragedies such as the 1964 election.

Today's Antioch News' endorsements won't affect the entire nation and may not be entirely accurate. But in the time we have had to study the races, these are the best recommendations we can make.

referendum on Home Rule, we do suggest a "yes" vote on the proposition to increase the tax rate for the Lake County museum. There is a wealth of cultural material that should be preserved for the future of the county and its young citizens. Increasing the annual tax rate, not to exceed .004 percent, would help this cause.

In the Republican primary, we also strongly endorse Harry Thomas for Lake County Circuit Court Clerk.

Health Insurance Figures Large In Company Budgets

Did you know—

- Employers are the largest single private provider of health care benefits?

- Industry annually spends more than $15 billion for the purchase of health insurance for employees and their dependents?

- Companies are paying an average of 92 per cent of the health insurance premiums for their employees, and

- These expenditures equal an average of approximately 6 per cent of company payroll?

Minerals Abundant In Mainland China

The Republic of China is one of the world's richest mineral-owning countries, according to a report by the U.S. Bureau of Mines.

In 1975, China was among the top three countries in the production of coal, anthracite, tungsten, antimony, mercury, pyrites and asbestos.

The report noted that China is particularly rich in bituminous coal, anthracite, iron ore, tungsten, manganese, mercury, tin, salt, and asbestos, making the country self-sufficient in most minerals.

Youthful Agency Big For Its Age

The Environmental Protection Agency, which just celebrated its fifth birthday, has grown into the biggest of the regulatory agencies. It has 9,000 employees and $2 million per day to spend.

In addition, the $18 billion a year sewerage grants program makes EPA the biggest public works director.

Company Finds Silver Source In Hospitals

A recycling company has found something valuable in old x-ray film—silver.

According to Ag-Met Inc. of Frackville, Pa., approximately one and a half pounds of silver can be extracted from 100 pounds of used x-ray film. The burned x-rays produce a sludge that can be melted and refined into silver of 99 per cent purity.

Due to our expanding population and rising standard of living there has been an increased use of medical services, including x-rays. By law, hospitals and laboratories are required to keep x-rays for seven years before discarding them, and the increased volume of film used because of Medicare and Medicaid programs is only now becoming available for recycling.

The company recycled an estimated 7 million ounces of silver in 1975, while an estimated 30 million ounces of silver were extracted from all U.S. mines last year.

Breeder Reactor Safety System Will Be Studied

The Westinghouse Corp. is building a new facility to prove the reliability of a major safety system of nuclear breeder reactors.

The U.S. Energy Research and Development Administration (ERDA) is providing $35 million toward the project to confirm that the control-rod safety system performs reliably. The facility will be at the Advanced Reactor Division at Waltz Mill, Pa.

Breeder reactors derive their name from their ability to produce more nuclear fuel than they consume.

"When breeder reactors begin commercial operation, they will assure the U.S. of a supply of nuclear fuel that is almost unlimited."

SMALL WONDER

How Little Things Can Really Mean A Lot

Because of micrographics, a technology in which smaller is better, original documents can now be so reduced in size that soon you will not only find a catalog card in a library drawer, but the entire book as well—on microfilm!

It all began more than 100 years ago during the Franco Prussian War when Rene Dagron photographed some 1,000 messages on a film two inches wide. He then strapped his film to a pigeon's leg and his message flew to Paris where it was projected by lantern on a screen and read.

Many experts feel that the answer to the rising cost of paper is miniaturization. In microfilm.

Recommend Adoption Of Comprehensive Plan

The Antioch trustees last Wednesday recommended adoption of "The Comprehensive Plan for Antioch" following a public hearing held at the village hall.

The village board is expected to approve the plan at next Monday night's 8 o'clock meeting.

The 165-page document is the work of years of study by the village planning commission.

Plan Commission Chairman Ken Wierschem said it is not a "regulatory document, but strictly a guide... a plan for the village's future."

About 20 persons attended the public hearing.

Old Farmer's Riddle: What has eighty-eight keys but can open no door? (Answer below.)

Ask the Old Farmer: In a very old family diary I read that one of my ancestors was working as a "picker." It sounded as though he didn't care for the job, but it wasn't described. I'm sure it doesn't mean picking crops because the entry was made in the winter. F.K., Portland, Maine

In our section, the man who cleaned millstones of the ground grain that became packed in their crevices was called a "picker."

Home Hints: Never spin dry quilts; hang them up to dry... Riddle answer: A piano.

Where Our Customers Send Their Friends
—Service Is Best And Cars Cost Less

The Town Crier

Best book we've read in recent years:

"Griffin Loves Phoenix."

Maybe you saw the movie on TV recently. We missed it, but we bought the pocketbook for $1.50 when we saw it on a newsrack. Mainly because the TV movie starred one of our all-time favorites, Peter Falk, and Jill Clayburgh, whom we think plays Carole Lombard in the new Gable-Lombard movie.

THE PAPERBACK is only 142 pages and you probably will read it in one sitting.

You thought "Love Story" was good? This is much better. The writer of the novel, John Hill, handles the story beautifully and has a super talent for one-liners.

Jeff Griffin is 37, not going on 38. He is dying of cancer. Sarah Phoenix is 33 and dying of leukemia. They meet by chance.

He sticks a cigarette out of each ear and says:

"Excuse me, do you have a match?"

She answers:

"You smoke too much."

SHE VISITS an old college friend who has a 6-year-old boy. "He's going through that difficult stage for boys," her friend explains. "You know, from ages three to thirty-eight."

The little 6-year-old wears red tennis shoes, blue jeans and a

T-shirt that says: "I'm the reason Mom can't cope."

GRIFFIN AND Phoenix split, not wanting to hurt each other, but luckily meet again at an amusement park.

"I'll treat," she says. "You want cotton candy or a balloon?"

"Cotton candy," he says. "Balloons taste terrible."

This is the kind of writing we can't put down. We won't tell you how great the ending is ... you go buy the book.

For those of us who like superb, snappy writing ... and a story that's worth sharing ... it's the better thing since "Love Story."

CLC Lecture Anti-Athiest

The College of Lake County is sponsoring the lecture "Madalyn Murray O'Hair ... Agree or Disagree," on Wednesday, Mar. 17, at 8 p.m. in the Blue Lecture Hall.

L.R. Davis, president of the Christian Fellowship, Inc., disagrees and will be speaking out against Dr. O'Hair, showing the other side to the theory of "a supreme power greater than all gods."

A number of young people will be present who will tell how, through belief in the power of a supreme being, they found deliverance from hard drug addiction, alcoholism and other destructive habits of life.

The largest work force of a civilian organization belongs to the United States Post Office which employs over 696,000 hard-working postal workers. Ever try and figure out how many miles our dedicated letter carriers have walked on their daily rounds since the Post Office was established in 1792 so that our mail arrives safely on time?

Our own jobs probably depend on electricity, and we rely on the people who make it to have it there. Just as we rely on them to have it waiting when we come home at night.

Seldom are we disappointed.

But what about tomorrow? Or 10 years from now? Will there still be enough electricity when we want it, as always? The experts at Edison Electric Institute, the principal association for the nation's electric companies, feel that the answer is hopefully yes, but it will have to cost more.

The people at our electric companies rely on us to understand this

AMERICA'S HERITAGE

HIGHLIGHTS OF AMERICAN HISTORY
Col. William Prescott At The Battle Of Bunker Hill

The date was June 16, 1775. A detachment of some 1,200 Continental soldiers, commanded by Colonel William Prescott, a spirited veteran officer in the Massachusetts line, moved cautiously under the darkened sky. Their mission was to fortify and defend a hilly zone in the Heights overlooking Boston. The British were fast closing in.

Paced by Colonel Prescott and two sergeants laden with dark lanterns, the force pushed toward the Heights. At Charlestown, they were met by wagons carrying entrenching tools.

The written orders were for them to man Bunker Hill. But upon arrival at the Boston outskirts, plans were amended. It was decided that Breed's Hill, about 700 yards nearer to Boston, was a more advantageous position for the defense of the town and ports.

The lines for fortification were mapped out. The men stacked their guns and packs, seized their trenching tools and got down to work. Colonel Prescott sent out a patrol to ferret out any enemy movement at the foot of the Heights. Not willing to trust the vigilance of others entirely, Colonel Prescott twice went down to the water's edge, investigating every sight and sound.

At dawn, the Continental soldiers were discovered by British ships of war floating on the nearby waters. The alarm was sounded. The captain of the Lively, the nearest ship, opened fire upon the Hill. Others followed and the battle was on.

This historical scene of embattled men digging "fox holes," with Colonel Prescott's towering figure standing atop the parapet bravely urging them on amid flying cannon balls, is colorfully recaptured in a painting by F.C. Yohn, part of a collection owned by The Continental Insurance Companies.

Encouraged by the spirit of their commander, the Continental soldiers completed the earthworks in time to battle the onrushing British soldiers. And they emerged in triumph.

What the Candidates are Saying

"A JUDICIARY composed of men and women who have a variety of education and experience is the cornerstone of American justice," Harris W. Fawell, Republican candidate for the Illinois Supreme Court, emphasized when he addressed audiences in Waukegan.

Fawell has been a member of the Illinois Senate since 1962, serving on the Judiciary Committee for 13 years and as a member of the Illinois Judicial Advisory Council.

He also has been in the private practice of law for 23 years and is a former DuPage County assistant state's attorney.

"My legislative experience is an asset," Fawell explained. "I am well aware of the intent of the law and fully recognize that legislators make law. Judges should not legislate."

"All too often I've watched administrative interpretation or judicial review overturn the intent of the law - what the people's representatives in the General Assembly sought to achieve."

Fawell, 47, is a native of DuPage County. He and his wife, Ruth, and their three children live in Naperville. Mrs. Fawell is an elementary public school teacher.

"More power, Joe!"

Females By Eight

The latest health data indicates U.S. women outlive men today by eight full years. The average male's life-span in this country is 67 and the average woman can look forward to reaching the age of 75.

Of course, this is the average, which means that large numbers will live far beyond these average ages, since so many die before reaching them.

The importance of the latest data is to confirm continuation of the trend of greater female longevity, which was only two or three years at the turn of the century. U.S. women, who now control most of the nation's wealth, and who still enjoy many legal and social advantages, plus equal rights in practically every field, have never had it so good. As distinguished foreign historians have said, America is truly the world's greatest matriarchy—far better or worse.

Sports fans may find their title in controversy. Some word experts say fan comes from fanatic, others that its from fancy, the gentlemen who frequented prize fights in bygone days.

ARIES [March 21-April 19] - If spirits are low seek the companionship of close friends who understand your moods. New opportunity can present itself through a past acquaintance who has a shrewd eye for business.

TAURUS [April 20-May 20] - Take a close look at your financial situation before spending foolishly on unnecessary items. Generosity can be shown in ways other than monetary.

GEMINI [May 21-June 21] - Although those bright new ideas seem worthwhile no firm commitments should be made just yet. Finish up with those pending matters before getting too involved with additional responsibilities.

CANCER [June 22-July 21] - If social life is lagging plan to do some entertaining to get out of a boring routine. Meeting new people can add new dimensions.

LEO [July 22-August 21] - Turn a deaf ear to people who tend to gossip; getting involved in behind-the-scenes activities can be a costly mistake. Contact favorite relatives.

VIRGO [August 22-September 22] - Don't rely on others to get important matters cleared up; act independently and tend to obligations efficiently. An older associate may have the advice you need.

LIBRA [September 23-October 22] - A good week to deal with the younger generation and clear up past differences. As popularity is high now you can easily persuade others to see things your way.

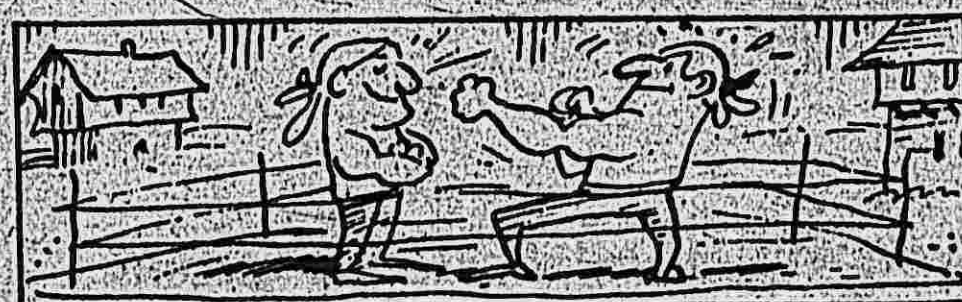

SCORPIO [October 23-November 21] - Try not to force issues if family members don't agree with your method of doing things. Get some advice from one who isn't so close to your situation.

SAGGITARIUS [November 22-December 20] - Your attraction toward intellectual people can be a big factor in changing present routine. Expansive ideas should be given your full attention now.

CAPRICORN [December 21-January 20] - Review your money situation carefully; take your time about embarking upon some new plan which may turn out to be an expensive endeavor.

AQUARIUS [January 21-February 19] - A good week to combine business with pleasure; new opportunity can be realized at some social gathering so don't turn down invitations out.

PISCES [February 20-March 20] - Romantic ventures should be handled on a more serious basis as any new involvement may turn out to have lasting effects. An old acquaintance may enter the picture soon.

Guest Day' Next For Woman's Club

By FLORENCE PEDERSEN

The Antioch Woman's Club dessert card party was a success in spite of the rainy weather.

Use of the Antioch Country Club and a waitress were donated by Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Santino. There were table favors for each lady present from the State Bank of Antioch and door prizes from the First National Bank of Antioch. Delicious cakes and coffee were served.

Chairperson of the hostess committee, Mrs. Thomas Santino, was assisted by Mesdames Robert Sven, Charles Solar, John Kulack, Ralph Jacobsen, Irving Elms, Joseph Horton, Nicholas Teister and Alfred Pedersen.

OTHER MEMBERS on the committee were: Mesdames Luliver Lasco, Dan Maras, Donald Mentone, Bernard Osmond, Joseph Patrovsky Sr., Richard Radke, William Seemann, Arthur Trieger, Donald Walsh and Eugene Zannini.

Next Monday the Antioch Woman's Club will meet at the First National Bank's community room. It will be a "Guest Day" and there will be a business meeting.

The program will be "Beauty & Fashion Co-ordinates," presented by Norma Hill. She has been a professional model for 15 years, a fashion consultant and lecturer, and directs her own company, Career Co-ordinates.

Her lectured demonstration on diet, exercise, hair, skin care, makeup and fashion are well received. Short cuts and practiced methods are emphasized.

She is well qualified to assist in highlighting your best features through her unique approach to fashion and beauty.

Dollar-Wise Decorating

DECORATING A CHILD'S ROOM

By Joy Miller

A parent who surprises a child with a new room robs the youngster of half the fun of decorating. A child denied the anticipation... planning... and part of the do-it-yourself execution loses a good opportunity for self-expression.

You can't blame a child for wanting to be in on such a personal project. It's unfair when the children concerned are neglected and adults completely "take over."

Whether you're decorating with a tot or a teenager, let the youngster pick the predominant color.

It would be a good idea to start with the floor. Color could begin there.

Some of the new self-stick carpet tiles from Armstrong have rugged enough textures to withstand rough-and-tumble activity from two rugged boys in a room and are do-it-yourself easy as well as durable. Installing carpet squares is such a cinch that (with only a little help at room perimeters) it's an excellent D-I-Y project for an older child!

A special sport, hobby, or collection can provide a theme and allow a favorite color to run riot in accessories that depict the interest.

As for furniture, if your daughter is wild-for-wicker, for instance, you don't have to buy lots of new pieces; one wicker chair (from a second-hand store) spray-painted will make a good start.

A bedroom is more than a place to sleep...so don't forget storage. Trundle beds available from Thomaville are not only space-savers but have extra storage drawers as well.

An easy desk to put together could be two painted file drawer cabinets topped with an inexpensive plywood top and covered with smooth vinyl resilient flooring.

Shelves mounted over a bed, desk, or on a wall can hold books, clock, radio, and even plants... and are functional as well as decorative.

At best, the room should reflect a child's personality and should be comfortable and inviting.

The simplest materials can make decorating a child's room a delightful experience and inspire environment-control creativity throughout life.

Whatever decorating decisions are made, the important thing to remember is that a room is a "personal" statement; and the child has a right to make it.

Rescue Squad Hears Siren, Hurries to Help

Twice a day, the Antioch Rescue Squad responded to the siren last week.

The squad members made 14 calls, nine for first aid, three for accidents and two to assist departments from nearby communities.

Those who needed hospital treatment were transported to Victory Memorial, St. Therese or McHenry hospital.

The Antioch squad now has made 138 calls so far this year.

Ford's Economic Plans Applauded by Industry

In his State of the Union address, President Ford shifted the economic emphasis in the right direction—away from government growth and toward private sector growth, National Association of Manufacturers President E. Douglas Kenna said in a statement.

"Reliance for job creation on government spending and deficits and on expansion of government powers, has been a conspicuous failure. It has led instead to new highs in unemployment and inflation," Mr. Kenna observed. "It is time to turn in the other direction and free resources for economic growth in the private sector."

We support the President in this historic effort and we hope that Congress will also support him."

Mr. Kenna said the President's job creation proposals aimed at sustained non-inflationary growth should receive immediate attention. He emphasized the President's recommendations for an additional $10 billion tax reduction, based on cutting the growth of federal spending in half, the recognition of the need to reduce tax obstacles to productive investment, and the changes in estate taxes to enable smaller businesses to survive and grow.

New Bicentennial Idea Book Available

Are you among the millions of Americans involved in commemorating the Bicentennial? If not, there is still time to join the festivities.

The American Revolution Bicentennial Administration (ARBA) has just published a booklet describing some of the ways America's 200th anniversary will be celebrated in communities across the land. Called "What You Can Do: A Bicentennial Idea Book," the 10-page publication is available free of charge. It describes 20 ways Americans are participating in the Bicentennial, and illustrates a diversity of ideas.

The "Idea Book" can be obtained by writing any of ARBA's 10 regional offices, or: ARBA, 2401 E Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20276.

Red, White, Blue Enliven Tank

Each month thousands of motorists are getting a look at the star-spangled paint job recently applied to a large gas storage tank at Amoco's Whiting (Ind.) refinery. The red, white and blue Bicentennial theme is easily spotted from the heavily traveled adjacent road.

A whole "gallery" of the cylindrical works of art may soon appear. The refinery management is surveying area high schools to learn whether there is sufficient interest to sponsor a design competition among students.

Along the way with ANNIE MAE

GATHER AROUND, children, today's lesson is on marijuana.

"Marijuana is a perverse and dangerous drug," says Dr. Francis Davis, "and the attempts to portray it as nearly harmless are irresponsible in the extreme. As a practicing physician, I have seen the tragic human wreckage left by heavy marijuana use."

Dr. Davis deplored the recent Federal government statements about the drug.

"We know that marijuana has very serious mental and physical effects on anyone using it regularly," he said.

Writing in the January issue of "Private Practice" magazine, Dr. Hardin Jones, professor at the University of California, described the dangers. This top scientist pointed out that, 1) Marijuana's effects are cumulative, since it is stored in fat cells and brain cell membranes; 2) It causes irreversible brain changes; 3) It quickly produces precancerous lesions in the lungs, which usually appear only after 30 years of heavy cigarette smoking; 4) It changes the personality - for the worse, usually causing paranoia; 5) It lowers the male hormone level; 6) It causes chromosome damage.

Any other questions?

EVER HEAR of a typographical error? We sure had one last week. Newspapers accidentally lose a line once in a while, and we lost the one in which we were congratulating Rich and Marge Ohlgren for their 50th wedding anniversary ... celebrated by their family on Feb. 25.

Well, this correction is an improvement on the whole thing anyway ... because 50 years and two weeks is a little better than 50 years. Congratulations again, you super folks.

IT WAS good to see Fred Herdt back in town at the Ducks Unlimited dinner last week.

Fred retired from the Antioch police department about a year ago and has been living in Herscher, Ill.

His hobby, You know, is raising fantail pigeons and in the past year he has won trophies at the Oregon state fair and at the Kankakee county fair. Fred says he just might move back to Antioch someday.

RICHELLE RADKE of Antioch, a student at Bradley University in Peoria, helped her school promote President Ford's visit there, and had a personal chat with him.

The President asked Richelle where she was from and, of course, she was proud to reply, "Antioch."

Richelle said she was impressed with his height and good looks.

SOME VERY special treats are in store for those who attend the Saturday, Mar. 27, dinner honoring Herman Holbek as Antioch's annual VIP.

In keeping with the bicentennial theme, Hank and Ricky Apostol and crew will transform St. Peter's Social Center into a patriotic paradise, with red, white and blue the colors of the evening.

Babe Wagner will play some of your old favorites on the organ during the cocktail hour.

The master mixologist of the Antioch Fire Department will dispense the liquid libations. (The management will not be responsible for those who over-indulge in the spirits.)

The first $177.60 in bar receipts will be donated to the Antioch Bicentennial Commission to help defray the costs of our town's bicentennial celebrations.

Dan Kasik and Ray Gallaher, two of the community's leading wits, will M.C.

Kathryn Wells is planning the dinner menu. With her superb culinary talents, we can be sure of a meal fit for King Herman and all of his friends.

Following dinner and the program, there will be dancing to the music of Art Creaney Jr.'s band, "PROMISE," a talented and versatile group.

Only 500 tickets will be sold, and there is a Mar. 22 deadline. The tickets are available at $7.50 per person at the State Bank of Antioch, the First National Bank of Antioch, the Antioch Savings and Loan Association and St. Peter's Rectory.

THIS WEEK, as the election nears, we have discovered the qualifications of a politician.

No. 1, he must have a navy blue suit, so that he looks distinguished.

No. 2, he must be gray around the temples, so that he looks intelligent.

No. 3, he must have a bad case of ulcers ... so he can always have that pained, concerned look on his face.

A LOCAL woman called the Waukegan city hall last Friday to find out if Grand Ave. was flooded, because she had to drive over that way.

The woman answering the phone said:

"Walker for Governor."

"I'm sorry, I must have the wrong number," the Antioch lady said.

"Are you calling Waukegan city hall?" she was asked.

She answered "yes" and was told:

"You have the right number."

If you call the Antioch News we won't answer "Reagan for President," or "Ford for President."

But we might like to.

FALLACIES and FACTS

FALLACY: Our forests are used just to make a lot of wood and paper products.

FACT: Aside from lumber for homes, pulp, paper, and thousands of other products, forests are used for things that money can't buy. Eighteen years ago, for example, International Paper Company started a wildlife program to make sure its forests would make the best possible home for wild animals.

FALLACY: Trees are a depletable resource.

FACT: Unlike most other natural resources, which are depletable, trees are a renewable resource. They can be treated as crops—planted, nourished, harvested and replenished. It's necessary to help nourish this renewable resource, not only to meet the present needs of people everywhere, but to help assure the availability of this resource for future generations.

FALLACY: Timberland isn't used for recreation.

FACT: Forests are a haven for people. International Paper Company believes that forests should be used for people's enjoyment. Last year over 2 million people enjoyed the company's lands. It allows hunting and fishing on a majority of its timberlands, and it opens its woods to everyone, whenever it can—hikers, campers, berry pickers, bike riders and Sunday drivers.

Let's Keep It Up

On a mile-for-mile basis, 1974 was the safest for motor vehicle travel in the 42 years that the National Safety Council has kept motor vehicle statistics.

The mileage-death rate, reports the Council, dropped to 3.6 fatalities per 100 million vehicle miles traveled.

Mental vacations are more necessary than physical rest.

Grocery Cart Tale Is A Moving One

In 1937, an Oklahoma City grocer, looking for a way to encourage shoppers to buy more, added wheels to some folding chairs, lifted the seats, and put a basket on the seat and one on an underneath rack.

The grocer, Sylvan Goldman, became a very rich man, and shopping carts became a very big business. According to Chatham Super Markets in Michigan, the biggest grocery chains buy 40,000 baskets a year at a cost of $2 million.

The sturdy vehicles will hold a dead weight of 1,000 pounds, not counting the "mound factor." They range from $30 to $70, and if treated properly will last 20 years.

However, the vehicles are often mistreated to the point of destruction, or are taken home by shoppers. Chatham News reports that a recent study on theft of shopping carts from a group of 39 stores showed a loss of $2.25 million, an average of $349 per store.

These costs, of course, are passed on to the consumer.

Employees, Companies Show Interest In Political Involvement This Year

The spirit of the Bicentennial and the upcoming primaries and elections are reminding people that the only way to make sure our political system continues to work is to become an active, vocal participant in it.

Employees and management in companies across the country are especially interested, since their jobs may depend on electing officials who understand the importance and the workings of the free enterprise system. The Federal Election Commission's recent decision supporting the creation of employee political funds provides one avenue for such involvement, but even more effort is needed.

"To be truly involved," said Robinson F. Barker, chairman, PPG Industries, "means working for a candidate, helping a party with a personal contribution, getting others involved in some way, understanding the issues and talking to others about them."

This wasn't just rhetoric. Mr. Barker put his company's time and money where its mouth was, as he opened a "Meet Your Candidate" coffee klatch during a work day last fall.

According to PPG News, more than 600 employees turned out to hear 20 people running for major local offices. The candidates, representing both major parties and the Constitutional party, answered employees' questions on crime, the economy, mass transit, and other current issues.

Candidates for local office in Erie County, Pa., forfeited some sleep in order to meet Erie General Electric employees. On two "Plant Political Days"—one for Democrats, one for Republicans—candidates were at the door at 6:30 a.m. to greet employees as they arrived for work.

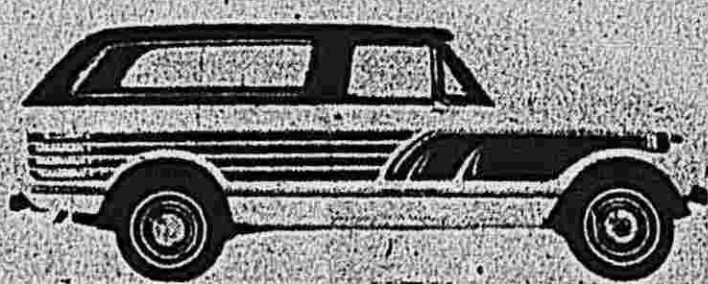

"Here's our problem, Bascom—we're just breaking even and if we give you a $10 increase, we'll be losing $10 a month."

Ron Parker To Star At Waukegan Track

At age 22, Ron Parker is rapidly developing into a top-notch race driver. For example, last season at Waukegan Speedway he ranked among the top 10 "late models" in point standing and scored two victories.

His performance, particularly late in the season, was indicative of a consistent and formidable competitor. Ron was subsequently voted, "most improved driver" in 1975.

This year Parker plans to drive a 1976 Camaro which will succeed his familiar blue Camaro. Last season Ron sizzled off a quick time-trial lap of 14.29 on Waukegan's paved quarter-mile oval.

Parker, who works as a mechanic for Chevrolet, devotes much of his off-season time to working on his car. Currently lacking a sponsor, Parker suffered a major setback when his garage burned down during the winter but plans to be ready when the season opens at Waukegan on Saturday, Apr. 10.

Prior to and during a race, what does a stock car driver think about? Ron Parker answered this way, "Before the starter drops the green, you wonder if the guy behind you is gonna 'stuff you' or if the one in front will brake ... it takes guts."

Toft To Run Two Tracks

Ray Toft, president of the Toft Auto Racing of Antioch, has made a lease-purchase offer for the Lake Geneva Raceway.

A stockholders' meeting has been scheduled to approve the terms of this agreement.

Toft Auto Racing promoted the late model and sportsman stock car races there last year. In addition, Toft earlier concluded an agreement with the Kenosha County Fair Association at Wilmet to promote and manage stock car racing at the Kenosha County Speedway for the next three years, beginning in April.

The two tracks had been considered Saturday night rivals since the Lake Geneva Raceway opened in 1965. Stock car racing at Wilmet started in 1951 and will mark its 26th season this year. A new track replaced the older facility in 1973.

Toft will open the Lake Geneva Raceway schedule on Saturday night, Apr. 10, with late model and sportsman stock car racing. He will add Sunday night racing to the schedule on June 6.

Open competition, super-modified and sportsman stock cars will open at Kenosha County Speedway on Saturday night, Apr. 17. A "free-to-the-public" practice will be held there on Sunday Afternoon, Apr. 11, at 1 p.m.

"This will mark the first open competition racing at Wilmet since 1966," Toft said. "In 1968, the driver-owner organization, Interstates Racing Association, was formed and sanctioned Wilmet racing through the 1975 season."

Toft was president of this group in 1969 and worked as racing manager until last year when he formed Toft Auto Racing to promote the Lake Geneva Raceway.

In addition to the super-modifieds, the Wilmet track will host midgets, sprints and motorcycles on special event nights, Toft said.

OUTSTANDING PLAYERS in Antioch High's home basketball games received trophies from the Four Squires clothing store. Making the presentations was Kevin Walpole (right), a star of last year's Antioch team who now works for Four Squires. An outstanding player was selected after each home game by the coaching staff. Receiving awards were (from left) Bob Dubek, for the game against Grant here; George Ferguson, for the Wauconda and Cary-Grove games; Mitch Witt, for the Warren, Lake Forest, Grayslake and Woodstock games, and Scott Kimball, for the Libertyville and Lake Zurich games. Dubek was on crutches because of an ankle injury.

Grant Beats Antioch For Regional Title

By MIKE WITT

Antioch's basketball season came to a disappointing end Friday night as the Grant Bulldogs did them in, 60-54, to win their first regional championship in eight years.

Antioch qualified for the championship by easily disposing of Round Lake 71-46 earlier in the week.

That game was encouraging because the team had been in sort of a slump of late, and the Sequoits seemed to break out of it with this game.

Pressing full-court and half-court, the Antioch team hustled really well and opened a 54-34 lead after three quarters.

WITH GEORGE Ferguson hitting on baseline jumpers, and Scott Kimball hitting the defensive boards to open up fastbreak lay-ins for Jon Bodin and Mitch Witt, the team looked as it had during the middle of the season.

Ferguson led the effort with 17 points, and Witt and Bodin contributed with 16 and 10.

The Sequoits shot 51 percent from the field, and outrebound ed their opponents 30-25.

ROUND LAKE isn't exactly a "powerhouse," as demonstrated in the first quarter, hitting on a "stunning" 3-16 from the floor.

But it still made things look good for Friday night. Pat Houghton, filling in for the injured Bob Dubek, who unfortunately missed the whole tournament on account of the ankle he sprained last week against Stevenson, showed he could hold his weight with the big boys.

And everyone got to play a lot. All but one player scored, and the team morale seemed to go up.

THE TEAM even had a recreation night Thursday night, which was held by Coach Roger Andrews, in which the players just relaxed and watched old Antioch-Grant games on film. (It probably was also held to be sure they stayed out of trouble, and they got to bed early. Joking, of course, because it was obvious the team wanted this game badly.)

They had a chance to kill two birds with one stone: revenge Grant for an earlier defeat, and a chance to dissolve the bitter pill of losing out on the conference championship with a regional championship.

But Grant made the breaks go its way in the last quarter as it outscored Antioch 20-11.

ANTIOCH LED after every quarter, except of course the last, including a 13-12 first quarter lead.

Antioch blew a 13-3 lead as Grant scored twice in the last 30 seconds, but Grant's star player (in the person of Kevin Kelly) was also on the bench with three fouls.

The second quarter saw Kelly's brother leave the game with a sprained ankle, and Grant also lost its center with four fouls.

Bodin forced Grant into numerous turnovers with his hustle, and Ferguson couldn't miss from his "home," the baseline, yet Antioch could only take a 31-28 halftime lead to the locker room.

Ferguson kept up his unbelievable shooting in the third quarter which, in the end, totalled a game high of 28 points, but Grant was on the Sequoits tail throughout the period.

They even managed to grab the lead a few times, but Antioch ended the third with a 44-41 lead.

A BIG factor in the game was that, up to this point, Kimball had been held to only four points. He finished with 10. Also Kelly of Grant had failed to even score.

With 3:58 remaining in the game, Antioch had a 50-47 lead, and the ball. But Grant came alive and ran off nine straight points for a 56-50 lead with about one minute remaining.

Bodin threw the ball away at this point, but came right back to steal it and score and put the game at 58-52.

The Sequoits then had a one-and-one opportunity, missed, and got off four rebound shots in a row. The last one by Ferguson went in.

THE WHISTLE blew and all the Antioch fans "knew" it was a foul, and that it would be a three-point play and Antioch would be down by only one point with 30 seconds remaining.

But the referee called Ferguson for traveling before the shot was taken. It was a questionable call in that (1) a foul hadn't been called before that, and (2) there must have been at least six players around Ferguson so the ref's view couldn't have been too great.

But Grant came down and scored to make it 58-52 and wrap up the game.

THE TEAM finished with a 16-9 record. Teamwise, the season had to be disappointing as the Sequoits failed to accomplish two things they figured to have a good shot to win: the conference championship and a regional title.

Maybe it just wasn't meant to be. Keep in mind, none of the seniors on this team played freshman basketball.

Kimball started during all of his three years in high school.

But of Bodin, Dubek, Witt and Ferguson, only Bodin and Ferguson saw any amount of "game" action last year. And Witt hardly played at all his sophomore year as he was coming off knee surgery.

And two senior subs, Tom McAvoy and Tom Gutowski, didn't see any action last year. So in those seven players, a total of only 16 years experience was fulfilled out of a possible 24 years.

STILL, THE individual talent was there this year. It's only speculation, but just think what another year of playing together and getting to know each other better on the court might have done.

Incidentally, this writer mentioned to a member of the sophomore team at Christmas-time that if they went undefeated the rest of the season, they could tie last year's class of '75 soph season record of 21-3. He replied that they would do it, and if they did, a note of congratulations would have to be given in this column.

Well, they did it, so CONGRATULATIONS. They hold a lot of promise for the next two years.

"The boys on the Apache team, have all wrestled extremely well all season, and have displayed excellent sportsmanship and spirit in winning, as well as losing," Coach Ken Anderson said.

Girls Basketball Team Defeats 2 Opponents

The girls basketball team of Antioch High began the month of March with a victory against Grayslake.

The varsity jumped ahead in the first half, scoring 23 points against Grayslake's 16. The girls slacked off in the third quarter but held on and won 35-33.

Kim Case led the team with 13 points. LuAnn Oddsen scored 8 points. Bonnie Pottalla scored the winning basket for Antioch.

The Antioch junior varsity remained undefeated, beating Grayslake 28-22. Antioch was lead by Julie Lytle and Cathy Ashbacher, who each scored 12 points. The junior varsity is now in a tie for first place with Round Lake.

Last Saturday the Antioch team played a non-conference game at home against Lake Forest. The junior varsity, led by Julie Lytle with 8 points, won 29-16.

The varsity won 42-37. High scorer was Michele Blanchette with 20 points. LuAnn Oddsen scored 10.

The next home game is Saturday, 9:30 a.m., against Cary Grove.

All in All, Sequoits Had a Thrilling Year

Antioch High's basketball season ended a bit too abruptly last Friday when Grant's Bulldogs trimmed the Sequoits 60-54 with a rally in the final minutes of the regional championship game at Fox Lake.

It closed Antioch's campaign with a 16-9 record and second-place finishes in the conference (behind Woodstock) and in the regional (behind Grant).

Coach Roger Andrews was gracious and philosophical, as usual.

"Congratulations," he said to his team, "for an exciting and successful season."

George Ferguson scored a stunning 28 points against Grant, swishing 11 of his 16 field goal attempts. Andrews said he had "nice feeds by Pat Houghton and Mitch Witt."

"Ferguson had a super game," said the coach. "It was a very exciting game but, of course, disappointing to our team and our fans."

Andrews has little to apologize for. He still has the best record of any basketball coach in Lake County, and his 1975-76 Sequoits almost won the conference and regional championships. They lost both in thrillers, in gymnasiums where their rivals enjoyed the home floor advantage.

Antioch Frosh End Season With 2 Wins

Antioch's freshmen basketball team closed its season with two victories Saturday in a round-robin tournament at the Sequoit gym.

Earlier, on Thursday, Irving Crown defeated the home team and then went on to win the tourney. Stevenson finished third with one win and two losses, and Dundee was fourth with three losses.

On Thursday, the Sequoits fell behind in the first quarter and, despite outplaying the Crown Vikings the rest of the way, they could not pull it out. The final score was Crown 56, Antioch 45. Mike Lischewski led all scorers with 20 points. Mike also had eight rebounds. Chris Oddsen grabbed 10 rebounds. Chuck Gleason, Peter Ploss and Roger Korjenek played well as subs, Coach Norm Hahn said.

Saturday afternoon, Stevenson challenged the Sequoits in a rematch of their contest of a week earlier. Again Antioch prevailed, this time by 69 to 49.

"Scott Gallagher played a super game and tied Lischewski for high scorer with 22 points each. They also led in rebounds with 11 and 12 respectively. Roger Plechaty also played well with seven points and four assists," Coach Hahn said.

Saturday night, Dundee fell victims to the home team, 52-43. Lischewski completed an excellent weekend of basketball with 25 points and six rebounds. Dave Gutowski was credited with eight assists in a good team effort. Korjenek had six key points and Plechaty chipped in with five.

Coach Hahn felt his team performed well except for the one quarter against Crown.

"Lischewski had a fantastic weekend even though the other teams concentrated on him defensively. Gallagher was really great against Stevenson and most of the players did their jobs well," he said.

Coach Hahn also expressed appreciation to all the faculty members who donated their time to run the tournament.

News from Allendale School

The annual meeting of the Allendale Association was held at the Northern Trust Assembly Hall in Chicago.

Mrs. Ann Young and Mrs. Virginia Addington presented Lake Villa school with a check for $30,000 to be used toward building a new kitchen and dining facility and a home economics classroom for the boys as part of their "bachelor training" program.

The boys' Shelter Club is an active supporter of Allendale's programs.

The Shelter Club's involvement goes back almost to the turn of the century and has included such projects as the building of "Shelter Cottage" on campus. The Shelter Club's fund raising activities for Allendale have included the annual spring lecture series, annual Christmas sale and, new for 1976, the raffling of a car.

With more than 100 active members, the Boy's Shelter Club is the largest single organization supporting the school.

Mrs. Mary Lee Leahy, director of the Illinois Department of Children and Family Services, was the guest speaker. She focused on the "role of the private sector in the care and treatment of state wards".

Mrs. Leahy said she believes that the trends of the future will be toward more preventive types of services such as day care, homemaker services and day treatment. Mrs. Leahy also said that if more state and federal funds are spent, a greater demand for accountability will result.

In recognition of volunteer service and their efforts in getting donated to Allendale School a drum sander machine for its lapidary art shop, the Burkles of Waukegan were hosted at a luncheon and presented with a plaque.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Burkle have given many hours of their time each Wednesday afternoon to assist the recreation department's arts and crafts program. The program in lapidary art (working with stones in making jewelry, etc.) has proved to be a success at Allendale. It has been a major portion of Allendale's annual arts and crafts show.

With the new drum sander the boys will be able to learn new techniques and prepare even nicer jewelry, an Allendale spokesman said.
